

Antarctic Mission (part two)

Magnetic Storms in Spectral Moon
(Puerto Williams and Punta Arenas, Chile)

Magnetic Storms! Southern Auroras on the skies of Punta Arenas, Puerto Natales, Puerto Williams. The colors of the red crystal “Sangria” spilled over the world sky. Magnetic Antarctic codes awakened! Cosmic human is awakening! Magnetic storms of transformation are inside of us!

What if those Magnetic Storms were initiated by Branka – Magnetic Storm from Belgrade, Reiki practitioner 888, who connected Biljana, a Magnetic Storm from New Zealand with Katarina, Magnetic Storm in Chile? Or is it just a "coincidence"?

And as if there weren't enough Storms, only few moons later, three Stormy Balkan ladies, this time combined with Mirjana, the Electric Storm, met at the southernmost point of the planet, in Chile, in a city called Punta Arenas: a point towards renaissance... rebirth... towards Antarctic Mission.

There is a TRANSFORMATION of the magnetic-electrical field underway!

It was a magical adventure of discovery, acquaintance, excitement, awareness, memory, activation, ceremonies, gatherings, but above all, giving and receiving... love.

Biljana, that beautiful being, has been guided all along by the gentle hand of the Divine Mother. BiBi, the name her father called her, now her name in Chile, captivates, delights, elevates, reminds, initiates... We spent almost a whole moon together – a true blessing! It was an intense time in every way with strong and rapid events, but also an opportunity to get to know and truly recognize each other.

I saw her off, grateful to Heaven, the Divine Mother and Hunab Ku for all that I experienced together with her and with all the wonderful people of this Antarctic Mission during its initial phase. From the Planetary to the Spectral Moon, we were in two bioregions of the planet, even though within the same country: in the bioregion of the Moon and the bioregion of the Star.

All truths confirm one another! All that is true is synchronized and indicates the presence of higher realities. The Synchronic order, mathematical and geometric codes as the language and grammar of the Universe, confirm the existence of a higher order.

Synchronic order can also be used to decode people and situations, to find meanings and patterns that cannot be discovered in any other way, as they are not visible at first glance. Thus, synchronicities left me breathless.

Biljana and Mirjana landed in Chile on April 15th, Alpha 12 of the Planetary Moon of the Dog, on the day of the signing of the Roerich Pact of Peace. Biljana left Chile on Kin 204, Yellow Solar Seed, the kin of Nicholas Roerich, the creator of the Pact and Banner of Peace as the Red Cross of culture and humanity united in peace, capable of harmoniously connecting all spiritual, science and art currents. This, indeed, was a mission of unity.

Biljana arrived in this Moon bioregion to activate new/ancient magnetic lines through the waters. This year, she vibrates with the energy of the Red Spectral Moon, as Giannina, her official translator, and me at that moment (as upon our return to Santiago, Giannina and I, on the same day, celebrated our new vibration of the Crystal Wizard). The Moon represents Universal Waters, purification, and flow. Biljana brought us the red liquid crystal "Sangria" to activate our vital waters, the passion for life, and to cleanse our emotions. Sangria is a reflection of the red Antarctic River that does not freeze. What an example of the strength of flow towards the inevitable creation of the new!

Our journey in the extreme south of Chile was awesome. In Tierra del Fuego, the Sun shone as a rare climatic phenomenon. It reflected in the yellow liquid crystal, which was at that time in the process of forming: the yellow-golden crystal named "Porvenir" / the Future – represents the fulfillment of the dream of the New Earth radiant and expansive, bathed in healing light and inhabited by enlightened people. The yellow crystal of the inner Sun symbolizes our own radiating inner Star, of each one of us on Earth.

We were accompanied everywhere by these cosmic frequencies in bottles made by Biljana's hand according to a divine recipe. While the red crystal "Sangria" vibrates with conception, the spark of new creation, and therefore the passion of new creation, the blue crystal "HimeMaria" brings us the strength of survival and divine flow to our "thirsty" land and to every individual so that we continue with momentum, without any stoppages or shortages.

Light and tones of vibration of the light language that BiBi has mastered for almost 18 years not only opened the new, but also healed the past: the genocide of the entire Selknam people, bearers of the magnetic lines of the long-forgotten world of Antarctica-Amazaion, the world from which we originated, just emerging from the divine. It was the beginning of humanity's journey when we transitioned from one world to another in order to gain the experience of individual existence, separate from the divine source. Now, having successfully accomplished that task, we are gradually breaking the illusion of separation and returning to ourselves and our essence: whole and powerful.

According to Tzolkin, the harmonic module and encyclopedia of galactic time, we are made of light and sound, so each one according to the day of birth receives a solar seal and a galactic tone. The day we were on the island Tierra del Fuego was Blue Planetary Storm – the manifestation of transformation. Biljana, Mirjana, and I were the carriers of that alchemist energy, archetype of the "World changers."

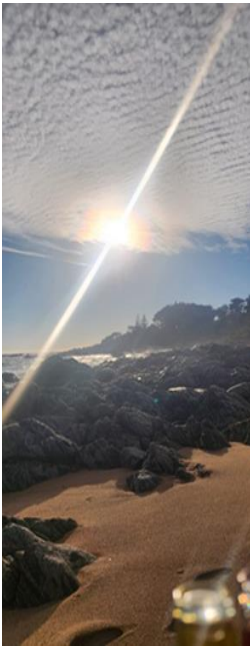

Torres del Paine (Paine Towers)

The journey included a visit to the powerful formations of the Paine Towers – Torres del Paine and the bluish-white glaciers that, like indestructible and proud icy guardians, preserve the stories of the white continent from time immemorial. We returned with activated magnetic lines via Magdalena Island and the Magellan Strait with an unusual feeling of strong connection with Magdalena.

On the shore of Isla Negra (name given by Pablo Neruda for black rocks)

We celebrated my new solar ring on the shores of the Pacific, just about 2 hours from Santiago. The house of the great poet of love and collector Pablo Neruda in Isla Negra always fascinates visitors, but this time I had guests with sharpened senses – the shore in front of Neruda's house is what always fascinated me, and now they too vibrated with its hypnotizing power. The power of the sea and rocks at that place is as strong as the rocks in the small town of Santo Domingo.

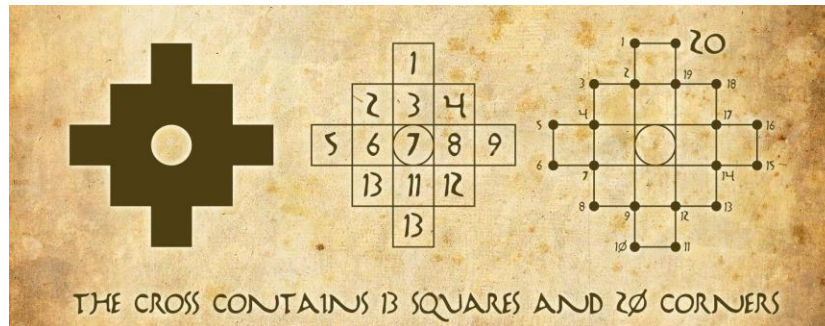

Piedra del Sol

There we find the fascinating rocks, named Solar Stone/ Piedra del Sol, unknown if it is natural or human formation, as they are assumed to be some kind of Inca´s calendar. Biljana spent a long time liberating the codes of these mysterious rocks. We ended the day very close, in the house of my eternal friend Smilja, where she was waiting for us with my birthday cake.

As if in a trance, we spent hours on the rocks. Ears deafened by the sounds of the crashing and rolling waves, while the rocks simply called us to touch them, sing to them, and somehow merge with them. The sunset made the whole scene golden. The rocks were so soft and yielding that even the deafening waves and cold wind did not arouse anxiety. And suddenly, in the distance, attracted by an arch in the rock, Biljana discovered another place for decoding, and a Chilean young man playing Balkan music on a trumpet. Sounds from the Balkans mix with the Pacific Ocean, in front of Pablo Neruda's house! Who devised such a scenario?

The day after, a holiday dedicated to Chakana – the Andean cross with a plethora of meanings that a few years earlier in New Zealand was the real key to the prophecy of entering a new world. The frequencies of natural time 13:20 woven into Chakana and Tzolkin. Chakana has 13 squares and 20 corners.

Chakana

Finally, on Magnetic Warrior, we landed in a (just opened) space-time opposite my house. I discovered it thanks to Biljana's intuition that there is a strong energetic space near my house, and at the same time near the Bahá'í Temple, I mentioned to her, which she immediately (even before arriving in Santiago) recognized as the place of the ceremony to be held there at some point during the two-day course of Reiki 888.

In the group gathered to be initiated in advanced Reiki, “update and upgrade” as Biljana likes to say, there were seven people with the seal of Storm, which is almost a third of that first, pioneering group in the Spanish-speaking bioregion.

Bioregion of the Yellow Star

The Arkaim Star

The Star in the Herbarium park

In Santiago de Chile, which belongs to the bioregion of the Star, in the park where the Star is in the pavement, the Arkaim Star descends for the first time on the American continent – could it be (Noah's) Ark of this fifth dying world? Besides the Arkaim Star and three liquid crystals we received the geometric codes of Ka Rai and Ra Man as instruments of healing in conjunction with vibrational codes in the form of mantras. Vibrations were pouring over shaping us in announced new human being with its energies adapted and prepared to embrace the new. Feeling the energy power, we let our waters, molecules, atoms, electrons to be reprogramed. We entered the void where it is possible to recreate everything.

Crystal Hall

In the airy space of a true crystal hall, in the middle of the park "Herbarium" at José Arrieta Street, while sitting on chairs adorned with cushions embroidered by my mother's hand, Biljana guided us through the history of the creation of the world, civilizations we surely belonged to on this long journey of our existence, opening up to begin a new one with our collective, conscious forces.

First Practitioners of Reiki 888 on the South American Continent, at bioregion of Star

Vibrations and sounds continuously dominated the space... we sway and dance to the songs of Gurrumul, the blind Australian singer and songwriter of spiritual songs, Red Lunar Moon. His wave-like and velvety voice sings of connection with the Earth, the elements, peace, longing, persecuted people who bring light to Earth but who always return, again and again... (Another member of the Gateway Family whose kin 249 I discovered on Lunar Dog, his perfect analog). Let's all dance to the melodious song "Wiyathul"!

The altar was adorned with colorful liquid crystals, symbol of the mother birthing the New Earth and a symbol of New Zealand – Three Eights lavishly carved in wood. The territory of New Zealand resolves the mystery of the separation of South America from Antarctica: its measurements correspond to a piece of land that once connected it to Antarctica. So, now we can expect the flow of the white continent's knowledge and mysteries.

On that island, one of the last discovered by Western civilization, Biljana, although born in Macedonia, finds her true home and belonging to the indigenous people of Waitaha. They recognize and acknowledge her as their Grandmother, one of their wise female elders.

Once again, another incredible synchronicity! New Zealand is the same island that attracted José Argüelles/Valum Votan. In 1987, he spontaneously bought a map of New Zealand, which he carried with him on all his travels. It is very interesting that Votan commented that coming to New Zealand represented a second childhood for him.

Valum Votan and Stephanie South/Red Queen lived there happily for almost two years, receiving and recording the volumes of Cosmic History. The main elder of Waitaha, the "people of peace," in 2007, Peter Ruka said that he had been waiting for Votan or the Time Lord for several years. His father, Teote-waka, had left him a legacy to search for a man from Teotihuacan. According to Waitaha prophecies, the Time Lord was announced 6,500 years before the Waitaha arrived on that island, which was about 1,400 years ago. Thus, on the 20th anniversary of the Harmonic Convergence, on August 16, 2007, the two were "adopted" by the Waitaha people. All this was formalized at the historical site Waitangi Treaty Grounds before the Council of Grandmothers and elders of the Waitaha Nation. They received their names with official status as "Tangata Whenua," as members of the sovereign nation of Waitaha.

Valum Votan, Horotane Whautere, and Stephanie South, Meremere Marotini

On one of their first visits to Christchurch, they first visited the International Antarctic Center because both were fascinated by the mysteries of that enigmatic continent. In her beautiful book "Uninscribed" with fascinating biographical details, Stephanie further notes that "Votan felt that Antarctica carried a key memory of the original Planetary Engineering Project!"

What is this invisible dance of light beings so closely related to me?

Synchronicities continue to overwhelm. Biljana has another significant date that she considers her second birth: February 18 (Psi bank unit, kin 144), the day she experienced rebirth in the Waitaha family temple. According to that date, her kin is Blue Spectral Monkey! Is it possible? Kin 11, the same kin as José Argüelles: 11.11.

What threads are being woven between my teacher Valum Votan, Biljana the Magnetic Storm, and me with the same seal? Does the transformation of the Storm go towards making everything as a game and magic like true masters of unveiling illusion, while releasing vibrations of reprogramming from our throat chakra?

At the Ceremony in the Bahá'í Temple, Giannina, Red Self-Existing Moon, in a white dress adorned with lines and dots (very similar to the magnetic lines painted by the extinct Selknam people who are each day more present for Biljana in other realms as Cosmic Selknam) receives on behalf of humanity the memory of the Divine Mother's guidance. Then one group was circling the Temple, closing the old, while another group was doing the same, but opening to the new. The next day, in front of the La Ermita chapel on the slopes of the Andes under a starry sky, Biljana crowned the gentle statue of the Virgin Mary as a symbol of the Divine Mother, Queen of the New Earth, while sending noble intentions and elevated feelings into the noosphere to be spread around the world.

The New Earth is first born within us: once we feel that everything is born from our heart, when only the heart guides us and when TIME becomes THE ART OF THE HEART – once we believe or simply know we know, once we only breathe the beauty we perceive all around us, being at the same time full of enthusiasm, joy and playfulness - then we are going to be in harmony with the energy of our soul, which connects us to our soul group, magnetized one to another.

The first 24 days (24, the number of Kinich Ahau, the Sun spirit according to the Maya) of our Antarctic Mission ended on May 8th with the last, the seventh generation – Overtone Sun. Interestingly, it was the Day of the White Lotus (anniversary of the death of the great Helena Petrovna Blavatsky), a symbol of rebirth and purity of the soul.

There is so much more to all this, but I will stop now!

With love, your reporter Katarina, kin 79
