

Kin 108 2024, conversation with Stephanie South/Red Queen about:

Avebury and Synchronic Order, connection with Mars and GM108x

2011 (supernova 2011 fe)

In 2011 I join a grouptrip to UK organised by a dear friend Erik, kin 70.
The year that José Arguelles/Valum Votan passed over on kin 89.
His last 'living' day on Earth was kin 88, my galactic signature.

First day visiting Avebury and stonecircle was on July 3th 2011, kin 191 Blue Solar Monkey.
There I met a very special person. He called himself '12'. He had a mobile home with number 441 (at that time I was practicing the 13x20 Harmonic Module for just 2 years and was not aware of the 441).

'12' told me that he had a major (divine) activation on 9-11 (2001), collapse of Twin Towers, kin 251. He knew much about the cropcircles and geometry and had his own light-language and didn't need to eat anymore since the 9-11 event.

(kin 251, Blue Self-Existing Monkey, the galactic signature of Ra Uru Hu from Human Design who also passed over in 2011, 11 days before José Arguelles/Valum Votan. Both received 'channelings/information' from the SN1987. I found out this information later in time).

The last day of the trip before leaving the UK, we visited Glastonbury on July 9 2011, kin 197 Red Lunar Earth.

I was at the well and suddenly a woman (Vikki Cunningham from Australia) came to me and said that she had something for me, it turned out to be the DVD's of the last week-seminar in Italy of José Arguelles/Valum Votan with the Synchronotron Teachings/441. Back home I started to watch the teachings.

'12' (and 9-11)

2012

I 'knew' by my intuition that I had to go back to the UK and be there with Ascension Day, May 17 2012, kin 249 Red Lunar Moon. I went with a friend and on May 16 2012, kin 248, Yellow Magnetic Star, the beginning of the Yellow Star wavespell and the last wavespell of the Tzolkin. My friend asked me where I wanted to go that day, because of the/my Star-energy. I said Avebury.

FACE OF MARS & AVEBURY, Supernova 1987 and Harmonic Convergence

Mars Connection – Silbury/Avebury

In 1991, following an intriguing vision, film maker and designer David Percy started exploring the idea of a connection between the geographical siting of key ancient monuments and structures in the Avebury complex, and a photo of the Cydonia region on Mars, which appeared to show very close similarity. The Cydonia region included the infamous "face on Mars".

(American TV programme 'Sightings', featuring interview footage with David Percy and Stan Gooch discussing human origins. (Totalgooch.wordpress.com).

When I read and saw this information, I felt the connection between the Face of Mars and Avebury.

Then I read José Arguëlles/Valum Votan's experience with it:

In the article Twenty-second meditation, Valum Votan talks about the supernova 1987 in relationship to the synchronic order:

"In 1983, it was the day Lunar Wind....So I stayed and among the people who came was a man named Richard Hoagland. He had been a science investigator and writer who had been with NASA in 1976, when the Viking Soace Probe sent back pictures from Mars including the now very famous and controversial 'Face on Mars'. So when Richard Hoagland said he had the original photos of this that he wished to show, I was extremely curious. When he brought them out and showed the Face of Mars, I experienced a 10.0 earthquake in my brain. I think that in one second I had a million years of cosmic memory re-awakened. I had never experienced a greater shock of recognition in my whole life.....I knew there was a profound message in this 'face'?.....I was driving down Wilshire Boulevard and I had such a strong vision.....I saw that this was the vision of august 16th 1987.....It was very interesting to me that the 'Face of Mars' and the vision of the Harmonic Convergence were so closely connected.....So all of us became e very unified event in me...the vision of the 'Face of Mars', the Supernova, the completion of the prophecy of Quetzalcoatl.....

.....Because Pacal Votan left his body in the year 683, it was actually 1,300 years later in 1983”.

Richard Hoagland is kin 212 (april 25 1945)

Because of the picture of the Face of Mars by Viking -1, they knew where Viking 2 could land. the Viking-2 reached Mars on august 7 1976, that is kin 191 (same kin as my first visit Avebury when I met '12', with mobile home no: 441).

Avebury and hidden square and 33 x 33 matrix?

Avebury stone circle contains hidden square, archaeologists find

Radar technology detects inner stone structure thought to commemorate Neolithic building dating to 3500BC and a focal point for Neolithic community

The university of Southampton mentioned that Avebury contains 3 Stone Circles. That it is the largest Stone Circle in Europe and it is 330 m across.
And that Avebury contains a hidden square.

'Secret square' discovered beneath world-famous Avebury stone circle

Published: 29 June 2017

Archaeologists from the universities of Leicester and Southampton have found a striking and apparently unique square monument beneath the world-famous Avebury stone circle in Wiltshire.

(University of Southampton)

The UNESCO World Heritage Site, cared for by the National Trust, was built over several hundred years in the third millennium BC and contains three stone circles – including the largest stone circle in Europe which is 330m across and originally comprised around 100 huge standing stones.

Near the road you see the 2 big stones where I was standing when I manifested the meeting with '12' in 2012. These connect with the matrix.... It has to do with of course squaring the circle. But I feel the connection with Avebury and the number 33. Because of my initiation on Ascension Day with the codes of the HMP aligned with the Heart of the Tzolkin, Harmonics 33. Some people say there are There are 2 small circles with 33 stones per circle. According to my friend from UK there are 30 stones per circle. Still you get the number 33.

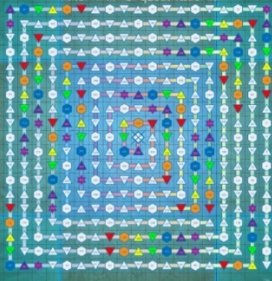

About the larger circle. They are not sure how many stones there were? My friend says 102 stones and then you get a total of 162 stones. When you divid the Epoch number $5184:162=32$ Same as chessboard. Avebury with the connection of the 17 (divine feminine) $\times 6 = 102$

And then there is the matrix of Gar, the 33 th Futhark Rune. The last Rune of completion. This matrix of Gar Rune is 19 x 19 matrix with the 33 th Futhark Rune in the centre.
 $33 \times 33 = 1089$ ($99 \times 99 = 9801$)
Could this be related to the GM 108X...? The Original Matrix attained = also Original Matrix of Avebury?
